The Schooner Barrett.

Yesterday's Wilmington Messenger says:
"The American schooner Oliver S. Barrett, Captain Goole, arrived at Southport yesterday in distress. She was picked up at anchor off the bar and was towed in by the tug Alexander Jones."
"The Barrett is bound from Baltimore for Jacksonville with a cargo of railroad iron and coal. She had a rough passage all the way around, and when she was rounding Hatteras she struck tempestuous weather. On Monday night, in rounding Frying Pan shoals, she ran into a southwester, and came very nearly foundering. All her sails were blown away and her chain plates were carried off. She is also leaking some."

Women Can Choose Health

No suffering woman could receive more welcome news than this earnest message from Mrs. Eston. It shows YOU the way to health. What greater proof of what Wine of Cardui will do, need be given? Who is to blame if you do not ask your druggist for Wine of Cardui to-day and secure the same glad relief? Will you not choose to be well? Why continue to suffer another day?

I feel as if it were my duty to write a few words about my case. I have been afflicted with female trouble for seven years; had falling and inflammation of the womb and enlargement of the ovaries; was past walking for a year and had tried the best doctors only to receive momentary relief. Part of the time I could not bear for my feet to be one inch lower than my body. I had to be picked up and carried like a baby. The doctors could do no more, so they advised me to go home to Texas. I thought the change of climate might do me good. For a few days I was a little better and by my relatives dressing me and setting me in a chair with my feet and head propped up I could sit up a little. I soon got worse and had another doctor called in, and took bushels of medicine, but if I ever was benefited I could not detect it by my feelings. I thought I had heart trouble, too. When I would lie still a short time my heart would apparently stop its beating and then they would have to rub me and administer today. I was being urged all this time by a relative to try Wine of Cardui, but I had tried so many things I thought all hopes were gone and it was not worth while to try the Wine. I was like many other suffering ladies who do not have any confidence in patent medicines, but at last, after I had been afflicted so long, I decided to try

WINE OF CARDUI

I hadn't taken all of one bottle when I felt some of my many pains leaving me. I felt so encouraged I had my husband order six bottles and by the time I had taken them I could do all my housework and washing with a little help. I gradually got better and during the past year I have been better than I have been for seven years. I have walked one and a half miles to church, sometimes twice a day, and cooked my dinner. I am still using Wine of Cardui whenever I feel bad. It is the medicine for me. I want all suffering women to use this good medicine.

Mrs. J. E. ESTON.

All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of this great medicine. Take no substitute. It was Wine of Cardui which cured Mrs. Eston.
